APPARATUS VALUED AT $10,000 IS CAPTURED

Hempstead, L. I., July 18.—After numerous complaints had been lodged with District Attorney Lewis J. Smith of Nassau county, Long Island, that a gambling house was running in full swing at Hewletts and that women were among its habitués a raid was made last night that resulted in the arrest of two men who are alleged to be the proprietors and a waiter who is held as a material witness. The men arrested are Charles Williams, who gave his address as the Hotel Normandie, Manhattan; Charles Burke, who said that he resided at the Hotel Longacre, Manhattan; and Joseph T. White, the waiter.

The house raided is adjacent to the Holly Arms. It is known as the King cottage. The cottage has been frequented at night by visitors from Cedarhurst, Lawrence, Hewletts and Woodmere. It is supposed to have been running since the opening of the summer season at Hempstead. During the past two months letters have been coming to District Attorney Smith from residents of the resort complaining of the gambling and saying that every night there are scores of women seen coming or going from the house. The information of the District Attorney says that many nights there are from five to ten automobiles lined up in front of the King cottage while the owners are inside playing roulette, faro or hazard.

So carefully has the place been guarded during the past two months that it was impossible for the District Attorney to get sufficient evidence to make a raid until last night. Men from the District Attorney's office had been under surveillance constantly and when it was seen that a strange negro was at the door admitting the visitors they notified the District Attorney. Mr. Smith got together a raiding squad comprising County Detective Phineas Seaman and Deputy Sheriff Michael Williams, Leonard Thorne, Frank Davis, Emil Morse and George F. Smith, who came from Mineola in automobiles.

The squad went to the door of the King cottage about 10 o'clock and knocked. When the negro opened the door they asked to see the manager. The doorman said that the manager was at the Holly Arms for dinner, but he would go and get him. One of the officers went to the Holly Arms and there he placed Robert King, who gave his residence as the Holly, under arrest as the manager of the gambling house.

In the meantime the squad pushed their way inside the door and were half way upstairs before they were seen. The lights were turned out and the greatest confusion followed. The officers rushed upstairs to find tables knocked over and the place in general disarray as though an attempt had been made to get rid of the paraphernalia during the short period of time that the lights were out. The three men arrested were the only persons in the room when the lights were turned on.

The officers found that any one else was in the room at the time, although the doorman indicated that several people had been in the room and had escaped detection by hurried flights through exits in the rear. Some articles of women's wearing apparel, such as trinkets and even one slipper, also indicated that among the players were women.

The house was handsomely furnished and the apparatus that was confiscated was said by the raiders to have been the finest that they had ever seen. It is estimated that roulette wheels and gambling tables valued at $10,000 were taken in the raid. The equipment consisted of four roulette wheels, a dozen faro and hazard tables and more than a thousand ivory poker chips. The prisoners were taken before Justice of the Peace Walter R. Jones at his home in Terrace avenue, where the charges were made against them. King was discharged, as there was no evidence to show that he had any connection with the house and he was not arrested. Williams and Burke were each held in $1,000 bail to await the action of the Nassau county Grand Jury, and White was held as a material witness in $500 bail. The bail bonds were furnished by Paul S. W. Linder, a farmer of Elmont.

This is the second time that a raid has occurred in that section of Hempstead. Two years ago there were four men arrested in a raid and with them was maintained a gambling house and all four were convicted.

LYNCHINGS ON THE INCREASE.

84 So Far This Year, 13 More Than
for Same Period Last Year.

Prof. Monroe N. Work, head of the department of records and research of the Tuskegee Institute of Alabama, has compiled the records of the number of lynchings committed in the United States during the first six months of this year. In a statement given yesterday Joseph T. Washington, the head of the institute, said that during the first six months of this year, 84 lynchings were put to death by mob violence since January 1, 1915, the number being thirteen more than the figures for the same period last year.

Twenty-four of the men lynched were negroes and ten were whites. Eight, or one-fourth of the total number, occurred in Georgia. Six of the negroes and one white man were charged with assault on women and the rest of the lynchings were on accusations of having stolen cotton, hogs, meat and cows.

BIBLES FOR CZAR'S SOLDIERS.

Sunday School Children Here Are Contributing Them.

The 1,000 Sunday schools of Greater New York are entering heartily into the appeal from Empress Alexandra of Russia, the World's Sunday School Association and the United Bible Society for five cents each from every boy and girl to provide a small pocket testament for Russian soldiers. The Empress presents this appeal in the following words: "His Imperial Highness the Czar, his Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Alexander Nikolaevich, most graciously presents this appeal, which he has sent to him by a Sunday school in America."

The World's Sunday School Association is promoting the collection of five cents, the average cost of each testament, not only for Russian soldiers but for all soldiers in Europe. Nickels are coming in from practically all Sunday schools in America.

GUARDSMEN AT SPIC AND SPAN IN DUTCHESSE COUNTY ARE READY FOR ACTUAL WAR PRACTICE AND BIG SHAM BATTLE

3,500 New York State Troops Get Down to Business Under Critical Eyes of Gen. O'Ryan and Regular Army Inspectors.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 18.—Major-General John F. O'Ryan tilted back his camp chair in front of his quarters at Camp Whitman this afternoon and glanced with satisfaction at the orderly array of horse, foot and guns corralled, tented and parked on the wide broad plain.

The infantry, cavalry, batteries and auxiliary corps of the First Brigade of the New York National Guard had just set up housekeeping for the week before them of hard practice under real service conditions, and the spectacle of their fitness and efficiency was very agreeable to the man who is working with tremendous energy to bring the guardsmen of this State up to regular army standards.

The great camp so suddenly and smoothly came into being back among the hills of Dutchess county, ten miles from Poughkeepsie, was extraordinarily impressive to a civilian observer.
